Reflections of Life

"The Man And His Music"

Life began for Willis Scott On February 7, 1946 in Littleton, N.C. to the late Lloyd and Emma Scott, and he transitioned on July 12, 2017 at St. Barnabas Medical Center in Livingston N.J. He was affectionately called "Red" a name given to him at a very early age. During his early years Willis professed his faith in the Lord Jesus Christ at Pleasant Zion Baptist Church. His formal education was received in Halifax County, where he was a graduate from Mciver High School with the class of 1964. He served in the U.S. Army and was awarded the Vietnam campaign medal, the Vietnam service medal, The Marxman Badge Rifle M-14. Willis was employed by numerous large companies in New Jersey which included Drake Bakeries, Singer Sewing Machine, Inc.

His Music - Red loved his music. He was an avid piano player, and had a gift to play any song you could sing. You could be assured that if you paid him a visit you were going to hear, you must hear the man, Sam Cooke. Left to cherish his memories are his two sons Maurice (New York) and Tyrone (New Jersey) whom he called baby boy.

In addition to his parents he was pre-deceased by three of his siblings, Elsie, Barbara, and Shirley. Loved ones now left to forever treasure our beloved brother are Dorothy "Dot" whom he loved like a mother, Lloyd "Bill" whom he talked to daily, Sandra "Betty" was his piano buddy, Ronald "Bo" was his partner in crime, Margaret was his New York City girl, Emma who he called dolly jean was his disciplinarian. Carol "Cucch" was his sweet and dedicated niece, his caregiver to the end.

He also has a host of nieces and nephews, great nieces and great nephews and cousins. His favorite brother in law Stewart with whom at one time he traveled together with to many places on the truck. And many, many friends in the state of New Jersey. One special Uncle Louis "Brick" Scott.

Afterglow

*I'd like the memory of me
To be a happy one,
I'd like to leave an afterglow
Of smiles when day is done.*

*I'd like to leave an echo
Whispering softly down the ways,
Of happy times and laughing times
And bright and sunny days.*

*I'd like the tears of those who grieve
To dry before the sun
Of happy memories that I leave behind,
When the day is done.*
