Obituary

Sametta Winifred Vick was also known as Sametta Winifred Joseph, and to some as "Winnie". She was born in New York City, on October 22, 1943 to Whitfield and Sametta Joseph, deceased and predeceased by her brother, William Thomas Joseph. Sametta was the mother of two daughters, Crystal Vick-Sawyer and Denise Vick-McAllister with their husbands. Sametta was the widow of James Edward Vick; grandmother of six; great-grandmother of three; stepmother of two daughters; step-grandmother of five; an aunt to three nephews; one niece; one great nephew; and one great niece.

Sametta was known as a strong willed, no nonsense type of individual, who spoke her mind but was very supportive. She traveled extensively in the United States and across the globe. Loved deeply. She will be missed tremendously.

She was:

- Very active in her life
- Very outgoing
- Fun loving
- Independent
- Free spirited
- Outspoken
- Respectful of others and touched the lives of many.....

The list goes on and on. But most importantly she loved her family and worked hard to provide for them. She continued to encourage them as well as discipline them when needed, and protected them in times of need. She offered support when necessary.

Sametta was an influential spirit in the lives of her family, extended family and friends, even the lives outside of her circle. She was a forceful presence that had a comforting side. With an infectious smile that lit up any room she graced her presence in. She was devoted to performing any task with excellence, never settling for anything less. She stood firm on her values. Lived a good life. Lived a full life. So now friends and family live your life.

Respectfully and Lovingly,
Submitted by the Family

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.*

I could not stay another day.

*To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.*

*If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.*

*My life's been full, I savored much.
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!*
