Obituary

On December 31, 1926 Thelma Mae Moss was born at the Mountainside Hospital in Montclair, NJ, to the late Ellen & Roosevelt Moss. She was the youngest of four children.

At the tender age of 14 she accepted GOD as her Lord and Savior at the Union Baptist Church in Bloomfield, NJ. Later continuing her Christian walk at the Metropolitan Baptist Church in Newark, NJ.

Throughout her childhood she was educated in the Bloomfield Public School system. Later going on to complete Bloomfield High School. Being a strong believer in education she later went on to obtain a civil service diploma. She also received her certification to become a Nurse's Aide Certification being the first African American of her class to graduate.

While she did work various jobs one of the ones she worked was at Shoprite where she worked in various departments and held various titles. But she was most proud of being A Nurse's Aide at the hospital where she was born at Mountainside Hospital in Montclair.

During her time being furthering her education, she met the love of her life, Albert Faulk. They met and married on December 14, 1957. And had an inseparable bond while times were not always perfect they weathered the storm.

Thelma was very active in the community she was a faithful member of the order of the Eastern Star Queen of Sheba Chapter 17 shining star in Newark, NJ. Rising to the level of Worthy Matron. She was also the secretary of the tenants association of 545 Park Ave. in east orange for several years. Anybody that knew Thelma knew she loved cooking and crocheting, dressing to the nines and shopping on Main St., but always made sure she made it home in time to catch her stories. She was always willing to help and served faithfully as a Nurse's Aide at Metropolitan Baptist Church, Newark, NJ.

Thelma is predeceased by her son, Richard Moss, her parents, Ellen, and Roosevelt Moss and her brothers, Clifford, Robert, and James Moss.

Thelma leaves to cherish her son, Kenneth Moss Sr.(Mary); two grandchildren, Kenneth Moss, Jr. (Stacey), and Sharena Moss; seven great grandchildren; two great grandchildren; a host of nieces nephews, other relatives and friends.

Miss Me, But Let Me Go

*When I come to the end of the road and the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free?*

*Miss me a little-but not too long,
and not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me-but let me go.*

*For this is a journey that we all must take,
And each must go alone.*

*It's all part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road to home.*

*When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know.*

*Laugh at the things we use to do
Miss me-but let me go.*

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.

Perhaps you sent a floral piece If so, we saw it there.

Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.

Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.

Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever the part.

Special thanks to Tanya Jones, Vivian Legette and the staff of Alaris Health at West Orange.
