Obituary

Jose A. Casiano was born to Dolores Rodriguez Sanchez and Julio A. Casiano on October 15, 1946 in Yauco, Puerto Rico.

He attended school in Puerto Rico until he was able to come to the States. He then joined the military and served in the Vietnam War. After he served his terms in the military, he returned stateside and became an U.S. Postal Worker. Jose worked for the U.S. Postal Service for 29 years. He retired in 2007.

In 1992, Jose met Debra Jones. Out of that union there came one child, Janee D. Jones, whom he adored with all his heart. He made sure everyone knew she was his daughter. He was a proud father. He also had one stepdaughter, Chanel Jones and one stepson, Jonathan Jones. He cared for them as if they were his own. Jose had four brothers and two sisters.

Jose was a very funny, loving, caring, and giving man. Too giving. You couldn't help but to love him.

Jose will be truly missed by many.

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day.*

*To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.*

*If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.*

*Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.*

*My life's been full, I savored much.
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!*
