Life Reflections

Mildred K. Jabar was born on December 28, 1928 in Belleville, New Jersey, the daughter of the late Bertha Edwards-Jabar and Brother Yussif Eugene Abduel Jabar also known as Eugene Jackson. Mildred grew up in Newark, New Jersey where she attended the Newark Public School system. Later, she moved to Linden and lived there for over 45 years.

Mildred worked professionally as a home health caregiver primarily with children in the Union and Essex County areas. “Gwamma”, Big Grandma, or “Momma,” as she was affectionately called by her family also had a genuine love for people, but she had a special love for children. She adored and loved all her grandchildren and great-grandchildren unconditionally.

Mildred had many friends. She developed many friendships with her good old-fashioned Mac with the Cheese, and her all time favorite baked Ziti dish. We will definitely miss that!

Mildred never had a sad or bad day as it seemed, because she was always full of laughter and jokes. She was quite the comedian of the family with a smile like none other. She also loved reading and word search puzzles, and believe me...she had enough word search puzzles to fill a library!!!

She was predeceased by her son, Ronald Jabar who has received his calling back in 2006.

Mildred is survived by her three children: Brenda Jabar, Charles Jabar and Cynthia aka “Chantrey” Jabar; eight grandchildren: Yussif aka “Big U” Jabar, Lance Abduel Jabar, Fanta Chinelle Jabar, Kyle Abduel Jabar, Kalilah Nidira Jabar, Eugene Yussif Jabar and Markeith Lavelle Jabar; One step grandchild: Eddie JR Grayson; sixteen great-grandchildren; two great-great-grandchildren and one surviving nephew Bernard Mason, Jr.; along with a host of other family members and friends; with a special thanks to the Trinitas Hospital family, Fedna and Nicole from Bayada Home Health Care, The Holy Redeemer Crew and a special thanks to Jeff Bahar for always keeping her smiling.

Lovingly submitted,
The Family

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day.
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.
If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much.
Good friends, good times,
a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!*
