Reflections of Life

David “Pop” “Poppa” McCaskill Jr., 71, passed away peacefully at St. Joseph’s Hospital on August 8, 2017. He was born July 28, 1946 to David and Rosie Lou (Williams) McCaskill in Paterson, New Jersey. On August 31, 1974 he married the love of his life Barbara “Baby Girl” (Spence) McCaskill of Atlantic City, New Jersey. David was a United States Army Veteran, having served in the Vietnam War, where he received an Honorable Discharge. David worked for the Paterson Public School District at School #12. He later worked for the Passaic County Youth House in Wayne, NJ. He ended his career by retiring from Prestige Toyota in Ramsey, NJ.

He was predeceased by his parents, David and Rosie Lou (Williams) McCaskill, four sisters, Mamie Downey, Joyce (Willa Belle), Christine and Juanita McCaskill, step-daughter, Vanessa Spence and his mother and father-in-law, Russell and Mable Spence.

Surviving is his wife, Barbara of 43 years, son, David McCaskill III and his wife Tara (Joyner) McCaskill, grandson, Chakiris (Fred) Spence, his buddy, Sean “Bighead” Neal and seven sisters, Rosa Mae, Joanne, Mary Alice, Deborah and Josephine McCaskill, Katherine Simmons and Patricia McNeil all of Paterson, New Jersey as well as a host of nieces, nephews, relatives and beloved friends.

David enjoyed watching football, especially his New York Giants. He also enjoyed watching the New York Yankees. David was a man, who loved his family and friends.

Miss Me But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road and the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little-but not too long,
and not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love
that we once shared,
Miss me-but let me go.
For this is a journey
that we all must take,
And each must go alone.
It's all part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road to home.
When you are
lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know.
Laugh at the things we use to do
Miss me-but let me go.
