Obituary

Mrs. Barbara Best of Brooklyn, New York, was born in St. Louis, Missouri to the union of Columbus Watson and Jean Jackson on February 15, 1936. She was called home on September 1, 2017.

Barbara was a beautiful person inside and out. She cherished family, and was always very protective of her family. She was a beloved mother to five beautiful children. She also was a devoted grandmother and great-grandmother. As special as she was, she loved doing things different from everybody else. She was genuine, loving, caring and understanding. She was a best friend to quite a few people that knew her.

Left to cherish her memories: her sisters, Mrs. Audrey Morrishow; the late Ms. Meriel Watson and Ms. Beverly McKay; her best, best friend, Ms. Audrey Wysinger to whom she treasured like a sister; five children, daughters, Bernadette Best-Evans and Gwendolyn Best; sons, Charles Best, Wayne Best and Takeam Best; son-in-law, Roland Evans; daughter-in-law, Kimberly Parisella; grandchildren, London Best, Asia Best, Keenen Best, Crystal Whitaker, Johnathan Best, the late Wayne Best, Jr., Christian Parisella and Takeam Best, Jr.; great grandchildren, Alana Best, Justin Scott, Jr., Jaida Whitaker, Jade Whitaker, Jasmyne Whitaker and Jayden Whitaker; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

You're at peace now Barbara. Until we meet again, we love you.

The Master Called

*I'm sorry I had to leave you.
My loved ones, oh so dear.
But you see, the Master called me,
His voice was very clear!
I had made my reservation
A heaven bound ticket for one,
And I knew that He would call me
When He felt my work was done.
I know that your hearts are heavy
Because I have gone away,
But when the Master called me,
I knew that I could not stay.
Yes, I'm sorry I had to leave you
My loved ones, oh so dear,
But, you see, the Master called me
And, now I'm resting here.
Yes, I've crossed on over to glory
And to you all I say
Just stay in the hands of Jesus
And we'll meet again someday.*
