Obituary

Deaconess Geraldine Lancaster was born December 31, 1941 she was the daughter of the late Arthur and Mary Taylor. She departed this life on Thursday, September 7, 2017 at the age of 75.

Geraldine (Gerri, Grandma up the hill) as she was known by her family and friends was educated in the North Carolina School System. She later moved to Newark, NJ in the late 1960's with her loving Husband and their four children. As she and her family began to settle down there they became members of the Berean Baptist Church, Newark, NJ.

She was an amazing woman and a caregiver to many. With a heart of gold how could you not love the lady in the red brick house that had a slick mouth that no one could handle (lol). She will always be remembered as the sweetest, most kind hearted lovable person in the world. Her presence along will truly be missed.

Geraldine was preceded in death by her mother and father, her Loving Husband William Lancaster, her three sons Dennis, Darryl and Kenneth Lancaster and one daughter Sandra Cooper and all ten of her siblings.

She leaves behind her love ones, her daughters Vanessa Lancaster (Newark, NJ) Dewanda Vick (Rocky Mount, NC) two brother in laws Willie Lancaster (Rocky Mount, NC) and Glen (Beverly) Lancaster (Kokoma IN) two men that became her sons Keith Grant (Newark, NJ) and Jerry Head (Bloomfield, NJ), 9 Grandchildren, 5 Great grandchildren, two dear nieces Shirley Parker (East Orange, NJ), Dazell Anthony (Rocky Mount, NC) and a very special nephew Albert Taylor (Irvington, NJ) and a host of family and friends.

Miss Me, But Let Me Go

*When I come to the end of the road and the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little-but not too long,
and not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me-but let me go.
For this is a journey that we all must take,
And each must go alone.
It's all part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know.
Laugh at the things we use to do
Miss me-but let me go.

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a floral piece If so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You,
Whatever the part.
