Obituary

Leroy Warren Jr., 54, of Newark, NJ passed away peacefully on Tuesday, September 12, 2017. Born in Newark, NJ to Pearl Warren Smith and Leroy Warren Sr. where he was raised and lived most of his life.

Leroy was a compassionate, soft-spoken man who enjoyed his family and friends as well as having a great time with those he loved most. Leroy enjoyed working as an auto mechanic and truck driver. In his spare time he enjoyed working on cars, listening to music and watching his favorite football team the Steelers. Leroy had an eye for fashion and was often referred to as Mr. GQ himself, graduating from Central High School in Newark, NJ as Best Dressed and Most Popular. As many of you may also know, Leroy had two left feet but managed to become one of the best skaters to ever live; tearing up the rinks of Twin City Roller Skating Rink and Branch Brook Park Skating Rink where he also taught his daughter how to skate.

Leroy was loving, kind, gentle and extremely proud of his two most prized possessions, his two children Rajeem Ali Scott (son, age 27) and Natisha Latoya Scott (daughter, age 24) that he shared with his longtime girlfriend and best friend Gloria Jean Scott. Leroy had three granddaughters Maya A Wilson (age 8), Milani Lauren Sydney Scott (age 6) and Chasity Aliyah Taylor (age 4) whom he admired and loved spending quality time with.

Leroy is survived by his mother Pear Warren Smith, his brother and best friend Terance (Michele) Warren, his sister Shalesha Wright, his grandmother Sarah Ward, his favorite aunts Patricia Roquemoire and Joyce Dock, his favorite uncles Robert Warren and Gerard (Cecelia) Ward, his nephews Dante and Zaire Warren, Tariq Wright, Terrell Wright and Taquan Wright as well as a host of cousins, friends, and extended family. Leroy is preceded in death by his father Leroy Warren Sr. and his grandparents George (Bully) and Vera Warren.

Mirror

Mirror, mirror on the wall,
When I'm alone, who can call?
Who kept me strong when times were hard?
The perfect man is what I saw

You are my reflection, an older version of me
You are my protection, that's always there when I am in need
And now, you are an angel watching over me
To my recollection, you always told me that I was perfection
The perfect complexion, made from love and affection

You were the provider when times were hard and things got tough
You hustled and hustled to make sure we always had enough
You are the father who's in my corner,
someone that I can trust

God has called you home, but you live on my mind so I never feel like I am alone
Memories are golden, they are here to stay
But now, there is just one more thing that I have to say...
So I faced the mirror and guess what I see?
That perfect man staring back at me

We love you Dad
Rajeem and Natisha

Acknowledgement

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a floral piece If so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever the part.

Special Thanks To
