A composite image with a warm, reddish-orange background. In the upper portion, a bingo card is spread out, showing various numbers and symbols. A prominent red bingo ball with the number '1' is in the upper right. Below this, a photograph of a man and a woman is centered. The man has a beard and is wearing a light-colored patterned shirt. The woman is wearing a white patterned top under a dark jacket. A bottle is partially visible on the right side of the photo. At the bottom of the image, there are several large, detailed roses in shades of pink and orange.

“Make yourself familiar with the angels and behold them frequently in spirit; for without being seen, they are present with you.”

—St. Francis De Sales

Reflections of Life

Mamie Ruth Dupree was born November 24, 1942 to the late James Walter Short and Ida Louise Short in Greenville, North Carolina. She was raised on the Short family farm where she learned the true values life. In 1963 she met and married the Love of her life Mr. Jimmy Lewis Dupree and started a family together.

She graduated from Epps High School Greenville, NC. Mamie was employed at the Hadley Kalbe Company, Jewelry Company in New York City. After several years of working there she decided to leave and become a stay at home mom because that's where her heart was at. Mamie loved her children they were her life. She attended Creech Temple in Paterson, NJ. She had an impeccable Prayer life and read her bible faithfully.

Affectionately known as Mrs. Mamie to many people in the community she had the heart of gold, Mrs. Maime would take in numerous children in the community and provide loving care to everyone that came into her home. She made sure that when she cooked she had enough to feed her family and their friends.

During her past time Mamie enjoyed playing bingo and cards. She hosted bus rides to Foxwoods Casino every month; she will give the Best bus rides where she had faithful people that will get their tickets early because they knew that her bus always will sell out fast. Her friends loved her and adored her.

She was predeceased in life by her husband Jimmy Lewis Dupree; sons Terrence and Jerome Short; parents James and Ida Short; sisters Addie Taft, Christine Stokes and Lucy Short and brother Douglas Short and life-long friend Neil D. Morrison Sr.

Mamie leaves behind to cherish her memories her daughters; Patsy Dupree-Walsh (Sherman), Adrienne Dupree and Okeishia Dupree-Pettiford (Earl); sons Jimmie Dupree, Jr. (Felicia) and Neil D. Morrison Jr. (Takiya); 10 grandchildren Lavonte Dupree (Shelby), Trevone Dupree, Okeira Dupree, Jayvon Dupree, Rahnaysia Dupree, Jahmaysia Dupree, Earl Pettiford IV, Emmalee Pettiford, Azure Morrison and Azjae Morrison; great grandchildren, Adryan, Amaya and Neah Dupree; sister, Icelene Gilchrist; like a son Bernard and a host of other relatives and friends.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day.

To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.

A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.

My life's been full, I savored much.

Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.

Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!
