Reflections of Life

ROBERT E. FOYE was born on April 4, 1944 in Newark, New Jersey at Beth Israel Hospital, to the union of James and Ellen Foye. After battling illness, Robert peacefully passed away on November 9, 2017 at the home of his beloved daughter and son-in-law, Ronda and Ronald Savage.

Robert was a very hard worker and began his career at Josloff Glass Company as a glazier, in Newark, New Jersey at an early age. His skills afforded him opportunities to do many installations in various government buildings and companies. He also extended his services to family and friends. If you knew Robert, you knew he was also a sharp, fashionable man and the only time you'd catch him not "dressed to the nines" is when he was wearing his Josloff uniform.

The joy of Robert's life has always been his family. He leaves to mourn his beloved brother, James "Mandy" DeBose, whom he held in high regard. He was preceded in death by his wife, Gloria and his sisters, Willa Mae Simmons, Ruby Griffin and Ida Saunders, brothers, Isaiah DeBose, Joseph Foye and David Foye. Robert leaves to mourn his passing: his beloved children, Robert Goodwyn, Leonard Foye (Simone), Rhonda Savage (Ronald), Robert Rogers (Angie), Renee Wolton, (Catrina Wolton preceded him in death), (Regina Foye preceded him in death) and Rachel Toney-El (son-in-law, Radee, preceded him in death) and Robert Foye (preceded him in death). Robert's legacy also includes 19 grandchildren, 16 great-grandchildren and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends, which includes, Linda and Dwain Darby.

Robert we will miss you dearly and you will forever hold a special place in our hearts.

*God saw him getting tired
And a cure was not to be
So He put His arms around him
And whispered, "Come to Me"
With tearful eyes we watched him
Suffer and slowly fade away
Although we loved him dearly
We could not make him stay
A golden heart stopped beating,
Hard working hands put to rest
God broke our hearts to prove to us
He only takes the best.*
