CELEBRATING A LIFE

Chazmir King Thompson was born on August 28, 2016 and was granted his angel wings on November 14, 2017.

King's life would seem short to many but those who knew him understood the quality of existence far exceeds the quality of time. His big smile melted the hearts of everyone who was around and his love was felt although he never spoke a word.

King's illness made him appear frail and sick, but he possessed strength, perseverance and an ability to overcome odds which is why his name King was so befitting.

King could spend hours laying in someone's arms and constantly smiling, while his brothers played nearby in the room. At the sound of his mothers voice, he would grin and display the biggest smile that one could ever see. King loved life and laughter.

King is survived by his loving parents, Priscilla Williams and Charles Thompson; his three brothers, Nasir, Damir and Jalil Thompson; his grandfather, Anthony Settles; his aunts, Christina Settles, Brittany McElhaney, Amari McElhaney, Drucilla Williams, Alexis Terry, LaShounda McHarris; and uncles, Clifton Wright, Allen Settles, Edward Robinson; and a host of other relatives and friends.

King's life teaches us all that life is to be cherished. Although we miss everyday, especially that winning smile we understand "that to be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord". We take comfort in knowing that he is in the presence of both our mothers. Rest In Peace King.

BABY

*God on his throne in Heaven
Looked around at His Flowers so fair
And then sought a blossom on earth
To add to those he had there
To be part of such heavenly company
The bloom must be pure and sweet
And the little bud that was chosen
Was the child who had played at our feet.
Sorrow is great at the loss of our child
At the parting with one we love
But the parting was made that our child might go
To brighten the heavens above.*
