Obituary

Earnest was lovingly known to his friends and family as “Webb” and affectionately called “Poppy Webb” by his grandchildren. He was born on December 13, 1938 to the late Elizabeth C. Glover and Clarence James in Arlington, South Carolina. After moving to New York, his mother met and married the late Henry Webb who proudly became his father.

Earnest entered into eternal life on Friday, December 8, 2017, peacefully in the care of his loving wife of forty years, Rosemarie Webb. He leaves to cherish his memories: his wife, Rosemarie Webb; children, Yvonne DeLesline, Lisa Webb and Ernest Webb; stepsons, Lorenzo Hodges and Carliq Holt; grandchildren, Melissa Santiago, Chenya Holt, Amaya Holt, DeVoun DeLesline, Marquise Holt, Dimitric Hodges, Dijanni Hodges and Naim Webb; great-grandchildren, Alexis Falcon and De’mien DeLesline; goddaughter, Briana Luker; and a host of other beloved family members and dear friends.

Earnest was educated at Douglas High School in New York, then later joined the United States Army as a part of the Heavy Weapon Infantry Platoon stationed at Fort Dix, New Jersey. He was deployed to Korea for a year and learned to speak some Korean. He was later given an honorable discharge and was employed at Harlem Hospital as a mail clerk for several years.

Earnest was well known throughout the Harlem Community for his dapper style of dressing and as a man who lived and enjoyed life to the fullest. He was a devoted husband and proud father who loved his family dearly. He often bragged about his children and grandchildren. His home was filled with pictures of everyone, which always brought a smile to his face.

To My Husband

*The moment that you died
my heart was torn in two,
One side filled with heartache,
the other died with you.
I often lie awake at night,
when the world is fast asleep
And I take a walk down memory lane with tears upon my cheeks.
Remembering you is easy, I do it everyday.
But missing you is heartache
that never goes away.
I hold you tightly within my heart and there you will remain.
Until the joyous day arrives,
that we will meet again.*

In Appreciation

The family would like to thank each one of you for all acts of kindness shown to them during this time of bereavement. Your prayers, cards, flowers and other expressions of sympathy are gratefully appreciated.

May God bless you all. The Family
