Obituary

Annette Claire George, daughter of the late Robert French and Arline Bruno, began her remarkable journey on June 21, 1947. Annette was the oldest of eight. In 1990, Annette married her life partner, Nelson George, whom she spent many happy years with.

Annette was a true Harlem girl to the end and loved to party. She was always at the center of bringing family and friends together by orchestrating outings, cook-outs and fabulous galas. She was a no-nonsense kind of girl and had no problem putting a person in their place.

Annette leaves to cherish her memories: her husband, Nelson; her three children, William, Tracey and Damon; her five grandchildren, Anthony, Dayon, James, Jr., Azhane and Jandae; her siblings, Eugene, Carol, Denise, Leona and Willie; her brothers-in-law, James and Charlie whom she adored; her sisters-in-law, Daher, Harriet and Annabelle; her nieces and nephews, Charles, Dwayne, Keisha, Negesti, Danny, Courtney, Terrance, Chelsea, Issac, Carly, Cailee, Camden, X'air, Hampton, Hudson and Darien; her son-in-law, James, Sr.; daughter-in-law, Dawn; and a host of cousins and friends. She is preceded in death by her son, Anthony, and her brothers, Robert, Malvin, William and Anthony.

Annette, you will be truly missed!

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.*

*I could not stay another day.
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.*

*If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much.*

*Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!*
