Reflection of Life

Haywood Lewis Eurquhart, Sr.

Haywood Lewis Eurquhart Senior, of New York, New York, passed away on January 7, 2018. It was his wish to be cremated and buried with his wife, Janette and son, Kevin at Forest Green Memorial Park Cemetery, Morganville, New Jersey.

Haywood, lovingly known as "Unk" and "Honey", was born in Durham, North Carolina, on June 13, 1941 to his parents, Genevieve Parish and Elma Eurquhart that preceded him in death. He was educated in the Durham County Public Schools, in North Carolina.

Haywood married Janette U. Eades and out of this union they birth seven children. He had five siblings, two brothers, a brother-in-law, and four sisters.

Carter Ross Eurquhart (brother), Cleveland Lee Eurquhart (brother), Albert Martin (brother-in-law), Ella Bea Eurquhart (sister), preceded him in death.

Haywood is survived by three sisters, Mary E. Williams, Lucille M. Martin and Jacquelyn D. Jones; six children, Pamela (daughter) and her husband, Gerald Vailes, Holly (daughter) and her husband, Nathan Rittenhour, Haywood, Jr. (son), Jermaine (son) and his wife, Tasha, Sharil Dawn (daughter) and her husband, Edwin Jones, and Michael (son). Haywood has twenty-six grandchildren and three great-grandchildren; a host of nieces and nephews; and the rest of his relatives and friends.

He retired from the Department of Education, where he gave 35 plus years of dedicated service to the children, families, and community at PS 101, on 141 E. 111th Street, East Harlem. Haywood was known for his great sense of style or shall I say swag. He embodies the quote, "It takes a village to raise a child". I am almost certain he has reprimanded just about, if not all our friends, neighbors, students, and extended family.

Lovingly submitted by his Children

Loving Honey phrases known to many:

“Dig It..., I ain’t hear ya..., Yo yo yo..., Who loves you baby..., Straight away..., I’ll bust ya..., Yes Ma’am..., One, two, one, two..., Chill-out..., What time is it..., You ain’t hittin on nuttin..., Jerk-o Dumb-o..., Finito...”

Quotes he loved:

“Children have never been very good at listening to their elders, but they have never failed to imitate them.”

“As one begins to become conscious, one begins to examine the communities in which he is being educated.” - James A. Baldwin

Please be comforted in knowing that the children born of this union of Haywood L. Eurquhart & Janette Y. Eades Eurquhart, will maintain our spiritual connection to our parents’ and nothing, but positive energy can penetrate the Eurquhart Family bond and all their loved ones.

Serenity Prayer

*GOD, grant me the Serenity
to accept the things I cannot change,
Courage to change the things I can, and the Wisdom to know the difference.*

*Living one day at a time;
Enjoying one moment at a time;
Accepting hardship as the pathway to peace.
Taking, as He did, this sinful world as it is, not as I would have it. Trusting that He will make all things right if I surrender to His Will;
That I may be reasonably happy in this life, and supremely happy with Him forever in the next.*

Amen

Acknowledgement

The Eurquhart family wishes to express their deepest appreciation and sincere thanks for all acts of kindness shown to them in their time of sorrow.
