Life Reflections

Scottie Saquan Jones was born on March 22, 1986 in Harlem Hospital to parents, Samantha Jones and Neil Scott. After a couple of months of fighting diabetes he was called home on January 4, 2018.

He was the oldest of three children. Leaving to mourn his great loss is his sisters, Donneshia Steele and Treasury Jones. Scottie spent most of his life in Harlem where he was known and loved by many. Later he moved to Staten Island, New York to raise his children. Scottie was a great dad to ten amazing kids.

Living in New York, he did all his schooling within the New York Public School System, receiving his High School Diploma at Life Science Secondary School where he excelled in his studies receiving a honors diploma. After working at many jobs, in 2007 he landed a job doing one of the many things he loved to do, working as a caterer with CoramNYCatering. After working there for several years, he went on to work at what he loved most of all and that was electronics. He became self-employed fixing and rebuilding computers which is something he was exceptional at.

Scottie leaves to cherish in his memory: his mom, Samantha Jones; his dad, Neil Scott; his daughters, Mya, Starasia, Melissa and Michelle; his sons, Christopher, Mark, SaQuan, Davon, Javon and Michael; his grandparents, Hattie Jones and Oliva Bradshaw; his niece, Mackenzie Jones; two men that was very influential into making him into the man he was, Donald Steele (Donneshia, Donald, Jr., Ashley, Donna, Edward, Asia, Donavon and Dashia) and Damond Morris (Treasury); his aunts, Devetress, Cheryl and Shauntel, four in the Bradshaw/Scott family; his uncles, Mike, Damien, and five uncles in the Bradshaw/Scott family; his great-aunts, Marie, Helen, Mary, Blondell, Virginia and Gwendolyn Jones; his beloved godmother, Michelle Brown; and a host of cousins.

Scottie has warmed our hearts with his love and dedication for us all. He will truly be missed by his children, family and friends.

"Don't Cry For Me"

Do not cry for me, for I have lived my life to the extent of time which God has granted me.

Do not cry for me, for I have walked a long way in my lifetime, I have moved on to fulfill my destiny.

*Do not cry for me, for I am not lost,
I am home where I am free.*

*When you think of my passing,
picture my face in your mind
and reminisce of the times that have passed be it good or bad;
Do not cry for me for I am with God,
and my life has just begun.*
