Obituary

A chapter completed, a page turned, a life well lived, a rest well earned. Norman Everett Jordan was born to Dorothy and the late Victor Hiram Jordan in New York, New York on May 28, 1958. Norman was called home on January 5, 2018.

Norman had a very magnetic personality and enjoyed life. He had a sense of humor that not everyone understood, marked by his love of quirky movies and he had a love of cars. He was a basketball enthusiast, and played until he took ill. Norman excelled as a restaurateur, realtor, record company owner, and most recently an executive car service. Norman was never afraid of failing. He was passionate about business and never let anything get in his way of taking advantage of a business opportunity.

Norman grew up in New York City. He was an excellent student and athlete, earning letters in track and basketball. Norman made his home in New York, New Jersey, Alabama, and Pennsylvania. In each place where he lived, Norman's life was marked by his entrepreneurial efforts.

Norman was preceded in death by his daughter, Beatrice Dorothy, his father, Victor Sr, and his brother, Victor Jr. He leaves to cherish his memories his wife, Tracie; one daughter, Christina Miller (Paul); two sons, Norman Jordan Jr. (Alicia), and Hiram; step-son, Ralph Adriel Johnson; grandchildren, Elijah and Gabriel, and a host of other relatives and friends.
