Words from Her Children

John 13:35 says, "by this shall all men know that Ye are my disciples, if ye have love one to another"

My Mother

She was more than a woman,
She was a force for good.
She was an Angel in human form, determined to show love at every turn and touched the hearts of everyone she encountered.
A faithful and unconventional Christian who often offered words of encouragement, motivation, and prayer.
She always making sure you were making the best choices no matter what,
She took pride in reminding you to have trust Gods process and always in good spirits.
Offering a comfortable seat, something to drink, and amazing conversation. Willing to speak to everyone and anyone willing to listen, often willing to offer advice to strangers as though they were her own children.
Time seem to stand still when she spoke, entranced in conversation minutes turned to hours.
Always so friendly and concerned about everyone before herself to her last moments Not to sound cliché but to know her is to love her from her sarcasm all the way to her words of wisdom
I loved every moment we spent together,
I relished the phone calls and visits.
She was Love, she exuded it, she taught it, she lived it
She was our example, and our guidance And you will be missed and forever loved mom, and lessons shall follow us all the days of our lives
You shall never be forgotten, and your lessons shall carry us through All the days of our lives
Shalom, Shalom

God's Love and Ours

1 John 4:7-12

New International Version (NIV)

7 Dear friends, let us love one another, for love comes from God. Everyone who loves has been born of God and knows God. 8 Whoever does not love does not know God, because God is love. 9 This is how God showed his love among us: He sent his one and only Son into the world that we might live through him. 10 This is love: not that we loved God, but that he loved us and sent his Son as an atoning sacrifice for our sins. 11 Dear friends, since God so loved us, we also ought to love one another. 12 No one has ever seen God; but if we love one another, God lives in us and his love is made complete in us.

Acknowledgements

The family wishes to express their deepest and most sincere thanks to all who shared with them in this time of sorrow. May God bless and keep you in a most gracious way.
