Obituary

Evelyn Josephine Vaughn was born on June 11, 1950 in Coney Island Hospital to the late Marion Roundtree and Rubin Sutton. Born and raised in Brooklyn, New York, by her mother, Marion and stepfather, Arthur Daniels, Evelyn lived a life full of laughter. She departed this life on January 3, 2018 in Maimonides Hospital surrounded by her loving family.

She was the eldest of three sisters, Diane (who precedes her in death), Lesha and Pamela. Evelyn was educated in the New York school system and went on to marry her late husband, James Vaughn. From their marriage five children were born, Steven, Gertrude, Anthony, Natalie and Tyrone.

Evelyn was a homemaker and loving wife and mother. She loved to host dances in the community, travel to one of her favorite places, Las Vegas and most of all, enjoyed her favorite pastime, hosting and playing card games. In 2014, Evelyn joined the United Goodwill Church, where she loved her church family and enjoyed attending services. She had a heart of gold and was a fun-loving person.

Evelyn leaves to cherish her memory: her children, Steven, Gertrude, Natalie, Anthony and Tyrone; her long-time companion, John Hampton; two sisters, Lesha and Pamela; two aunts, Willa and Kyte; one daughter-in-law, Cheryl; two brothers-in-law, Norman and Victor; twenty-four grandchildren and great-grandchildren; her best friend, Diane; and a host of nieces, nephews and friends.

If You Could See Me Now

If you could see me now
You wouldn't shed a tear,
Though you may not understand why,
I am no longer there.
Remember my spirit,
That is the real me.
Because I'm still very much alive,
I've just been set free!
Oh, if you could only see!
I have beheld our Father's face and
I've touched my Savior's hand.
All of Heavens angels' rejoiced as
I entered the promised land.
Beyond the gates of pearl,
I've walked on the golden streets,
I've touched the walls of jasper and
Dipped my foot in the crystal sea.
The beauty is beyond words and
Nothing could compare,
I've even seen your mansion and someday,
I'll meet you there.
Let Jesus be your guide because
His Word will show you the way!
So, please don't cry because
We will meet again someday.
