Obituary

Julia Hodges was born in Brooklyn, New York on March 10, 1931 to Reba White Hodges and Eddie Hodges. Julia graduated from Franklin K. Lane High School and pursued a profession as an Executive Secretary. She worked for various companies including the U.S Mission to the United Nations and the U.S. Navy. Julia retired from Merrill Lynch.

Julia actively volunteered her time to various groups and organizations over the course of her life. She held various offices for the PTA for both of her children. She was the editor of two elementary school newspapers. She was a Girl Scout Brownie Troop Leader for many years. She also volunteered her time for the Community School Board, Voter Registration and Church organizations.

Later in her life, Julia joined Key Women of America and was a dedicated member holding various offices as well. She also joined ITC and worked for a short time at the after school program at Bridge Street AME Church.

Julia loved to cook, sew and was an avid reader.

Julia was a devoted wife to John Samuel Williams (deceased) and mother. Julia is survived by: her son, Jeffrey Williams; daughter, Jennifer Williams; nephew, Kenneth Hodges; her niece and nephew, by marriage Justin and Jocelyn; as well as other distant relatives and friends.

Julia was loved by all who knew her and will be greatly missed.

Lovingly Submitted by the Family.

This Too Shall Pass

*When your burdens are many
And your heart is heavy
And you doubt your strength can last,
Reach up, and hold tight to the Giver of Life. And know, this too shall pass.
Oft' times we are laden
With trials and sorrows
That seem to come all too fast.
Reach up, hold tight to the Giver of Life. And know, this too shall pass.
When doubts and worries plague your soul.
And your problems are all too vast, Reach up, hold tight to the Giver
of Life and know this too shall pass.
When your faith is tested. And pain is so great
And depression you can't seem to cast Reach up, hold tight to the Giver of Life.
And know this too shall pass.*
