Obituary

On January 16, 2018, Anna Lee Stephenson was delivered to eternal rest and peace. She was born Annalee Campbell, February 11, 1920 in Georgetown, South Carolina. She was the second of three daughters to Louise and Westley Moore. She grew up in South Carolina and moved to New York City in the late 1930's. There she met and married Thomas Stephenson in 1941 who preceded her in death.

A devoted Christian, Anna joined the First African Methodist Episcopal Church Bethel in the 1950's and remained a faithful member until her body no longer allowed her to travel. She was appointed to the Missionary in 2003.

Anna worked at Laguarria Hospital as head dietician until she retired at the age of 65.

Anna leaves several loved ones to cherish in her memories: one niece, Elaine Short-Kirk; one nephew and his wife, George B. and Deborah Smith; two great nieces, three great nephews, seven great great nieces and two great great nephews; and several cousins who loved her dearly.

Anna loved her family and aided in raising her niece and nephew when their parents died. She loved them as her children and their children, became her grandchildren and great grandchildren. Anna Loved God, the Church and her Family.
