Obituary

BRIDGET JEAN CRAYTON

With heavy hearts we announce the passing of our loved one. She was born on September 24, 1962 in New York City to parents, Andy Val Crayton and Sue Hoskins. She had one younger sibling named Mickey Dewayne Crayton. She departed this life on March 09, 2018.

She always had a deep love for art, music and the social sciences. Although her upbringing, she studied those passions. She took all that knowledge and dedication to Mercy College where she earned a bachelors degree in social science. After that she enjoyed a 25 year career with the New York City Housing Authority.

Preceding her in death is her father, Andy Crayton, brother, Mickey Crayton, and her husband, James Gill who she loved very dearly.

She left behind: her mother, Sue Crayton; two sons, Michael and Dante Crayton; cousin, Denise; aunt, Diane; and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, and friends.

Sleep on mother we love you but God loves you more. You will be missed and your spirit will always remain in our hearts. Your integrity, work ethic and kind heart built a strong foundation in our lives that we will continue to build upon.

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.*

I could not stay another day.

*To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.*

*If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.*

*Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.*

My life's been full, I savored much.

Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

*Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.*

*Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!*
