OBITUARY

Willie J. Jackson, Jr. was born on March 22, 1983 to Roberta Clark and Willie J. Jackson, Sr.

He attended and graduated from Washington Academy in Belleville, NJ.

He was known to many as “Lil Willie” or “B.G.” He was a very (LOYAL) person to anyone he came in contact with. Lil Willie in stature was so small yet with a big heart of gold that touched many people and he will give his last to anyone. He was a very playful person no matter what kind of day you was having he will make you laugh, yell, anytime he came around he made his presence known. He was a mommy’s boy but the family’s crybaby.

He will be missed by many he leaves to cherish his fond memories: his mother, Roberta Clark; father, Willie J. Jackson, Sr.; two sons, Michael Ducan and Ahmere Jackson; grandmother, Willie Bell Jackson; nine siblings, Carnell Daniels, Roberta Clark, Leon Clark, Valerie Jackson, Shirley Jackson, Carrie Clark, Paulette Clark, Terrence Jackson, and Quintella Jackson; and a host of aunts, uncles, nephews, nieces, other relatives and friends.

I'M FREE

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call*

I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day.

To laugh, to love, to work or play.

*Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.*

If my parting has left a void,

Then fill it up with remembered joy.

A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,

Oh, yes these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,

I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.

My life's been full, I savored much.

Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,

Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.

Lift up your heart and share with me,

God wanted me now, He set me free!
