Obituary

It is with deepest heartfelt sympathy that we acknowledge the passing of Annette Davis. Annette loved life. She lived for her family, friends, for each one individually and for everyone collectively. The family is thankful for all the time Annette spent on this Earth.

Annette Davis affectionately known as “Annie” was born in Harlem to the late Irene and Robert Davis on March 8, 1954. On Friday, May 11th, 2018, her soul winged its flight from this world to a place of eternal rest.

“Annie” as she was called by family and friends was the youngest of nine siblings. She began her education in the public school system of New York City. She attended P. S. 90, Junior High School 136 and later graduated from Washington Irving High School. Upon graduation, Annie attended Hostos Community College to pursue her passion for Nursing. After completing two years at Hostos, Annie joined the workforce becoming employed with the United States Postal Services for five years. Still following her passion for Nursing, Annie left the Postal Services and went on to work for Partners in Care for twenty-five years until she retired in 2008.

Raised by devout Christian parents, Annette was baptized and accepted the Lord as her Savior. At a young age, Annie attended and was a member of First New Zion Baptist Church under Pastor Caldwell and later became an active member of Greater Hood Memorial A.M.E. Zion Church under the late Rev. David Pharr. While at Greater Hood, she was an active member of the David Pharr Gospel Chorus.

Annette being the mother figure to many welcomed her eldest daughter Kishana in 1983 and later adding to her family Yahaira in 1987. She taught “Shana” and “Heidi” the significance and importance of family. She loved being surrounded by her large, loving family consisting of a multitude of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews and cousins. Annette loved her family and friends unconditionally and her actions reflected her devotion.

Annette leaves to cherish her memory: her brother, Ledgurd Davis; her daughters, Kishana and Yahaira Davis; grandchildren, Thomas Dalton, Landon Davis and Ayden Lynch; loving and dedicated niece, Brandy Hardy; best friend, Bonita Williams; Uncle Samuel Jackson and Aunt Naomi Jackson; and a host of other nieces, nephews, loved ones too numerous to mention and friends.

Although Annette is no longer with us on Earth, she left an indelible print on all of us. We will surely miss her.
