Life Reflections

Latrell A. Small was born on August 11, 1984 in Elizabeth, New Jersey, son of Amos Harold Small and the late Sandra Harvard.

Latrell attended Abraham Clark High School where he played basketball and graduated in 2002. After graduating high school, he attended Fashion Institute of Technology in New York. He lived in Roselle and later to Rahway. Since 2016, Latrell lived in Port Reading.

He was employed as a Lyft driver in Port Reading. Latrell was employed as a Packer at Amazon in Avenel for a year.

Latrell was a member of Greater Mount Moriah Baptist Church where he was baptized and found his love for God.

He enjoyed fashion, riding his motorcycles/dirt bikes and going to the casino. He will be remembered for his unique laugh that no one could forget. He lived life to the fullest.

On Monday, May 7, 2018, Latrell A. Small passed away at the age of thirty-three.

He leaves to cherish precious memories, his son, Izaiyah Small; brothers and sisters: Shikandrah Small of Roselle, New Jersey, Azmena Harvard of Port Reading, New Jersey, Joshua Price of Port Reading, New Jersey, Kyona Thompspon of South Carolina, Raushanah Bailey of North Carolina, William Carter of Bronx, New York, Ciara Small of Florence, South Carolina and Sincere Chestnut of Loris, South Carolina; and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces nephews, cousins and dear friends.

Humbly submitted,
The Family

“Miss Me”

*When I come to the end of the road
and the sun, has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room.*

Why cry for a soul set free!

*Miss me a little, but not too long,
and not with your head bowed low.*

Remember the love that we once shared, miss me but let me go.

*For this journey we all must take,
and each must go alone.*

*It's all part of the Master plan,
a step on the road to home.*

When you are lonely and sick of heart, go to the friends we know and bury your sorrows in doing good deeds.

Miss me, but let me go.
