Obituary

Christine Jones, age 96, died peacefully on May 11, 2018 at the home that she shared with her daughter and son-in-law in Maplewood, NJ. Christine was born April 11, 1922 in Lugoff, SC, the daughter of Nick Jones and Belle Jones.

Christine or Chris (as she was called by friends and family) had an adventurous spirit and a desire to always improve her life. As a young woman she joined family members in New York and worked in the Brooklyn Navy Yard during World War II. She decided that she wanted to see California and traveled across the country on the train. She spent many evenings dancing at the Savoy Ballroom and eating Chicken & Waffles at Wells Restaurant in the early hours of the morning.

Chris was the baker in the family. For special occasions or simple dinners, she could quickly compose the best tasting cooking, pies and cakes. Everyone wanted seconds and ate them on the spot or took them home for later enjoyment.

Chris is survived by: her daughter, Pamela Taylor Jenkins; son-law-law, Allen Jenkins, Jr.; grandson, Shaun Jenkins; great granddaughters, Taylor Jenkins and Brooke Jenkins; brothers, John Jones and Nick Jones and sister, Evelyn Moody. She also leaves behind numerous loving relatives and friends.

Recessional

You're Forever In My Heart

For all you were to me in life
And all the joy you brought,
Your memory is with me
In every single thought.

The pain I felt at losing you
Will never go away,
But knowing that
You're in my heart
Helps me through each day.

When you were here I always felt
That nothing could go wrong
But you're still my inspiration
And your memory keeps me strong.

And though my heart is heavy
It's also full of love
And that's enough to comfort me
While you're in Heaven above.
