Obituary

Lance McNeil was born on May 5, 1964 to Chester and Barbara McNeil of Newark, NJ.*

Lance attended 18th Avenue Grammar School where he learned to play drums and then later acquired a love for the Electric Guitar. Lance's love for music guided him to DJ and also working summers in the SPEDY Program. Lance attended Malcolm X. Shabazz High School in an electronics co-ed program and graduated Class of 1983.

After graduating from Malcolm X. Shabazz, he was employed at Prudential as a custodian for Somerset Homes in Newark. Shortly thereafter, he became employed by the Newark Housing Authority for five years before being introduced to Bricklayers & Mason through Local 4.

Lance met his sweetheart Ursula M. Sanders in 1991 and in 1993 they gave birth to Lance Jr. In 1999, Lance asked Ursula to be Mrs. McNeil.

Lance leaves to cherish his memories, his wife Ursula M. Sanders-McNeil, his son Lance Jr., Brothers Chester and Jemal McNeil, sisters Kim Harris, Wanda and Wendy McNeil, four stepchildren, four nieces, six nephews, one great niece and a host of family and friends.

Miss Me, But Let Me Go

*When I come to the end of the road and the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little-but not too long,
and not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me-but let me go.*

*For this is a journey that we all must take,
And each must go alone.*

It's all part of the Master's plan,

A step on the road to home.

When you are lonely and sick at heart,

Go to the friends we know.

Laugh at the things we use to do

Miss me-but let me go.
