Obituary

Nicole Natalie Carrington lovingly known as “Babysis” was born on August 11, 1984 to Nathaniel T. Carrington Sr., and Tuesday Rose in New York’s Mount Sinai Hospital. When she was a baby, her mother used to call her, “My Sweet & Stink”

Nicole was educated in the New York City Public School system. She later attended private school at The East Harlem School at Exodus House. She graduated from Manhattan Village Academy High School. Nicole attended Bronx Community College, where she studied Criminal Justice.

Nicole did an internship at Metropolitan Hospital Center as a Nurse Aide. She also worked for the New York City Parks Department and Duane Reade.

Nicole leaves to cherish her memory, her son, Moses Immanuel Jones (4 years old); Her parents, Nathaniel Carrington and Tuesday Rose; Stepfather, Troy Jackson; Brother, Nathaniel Carrington Jr.; Her favorite cousins, Jahmina Stephens and Noel Bivens; Grandmother, Margaret Neville; Godmother, Diane Alston; Godbrother and godsister, Steven Collins and Shaniece Alston; Aunt, Loretta Harmon of Gastonian, North Carolina; Great Uncles, Harold Washington of New Jersey and Hubert Dixon of New York City; And a host of great aunts, uncles, cousins and friends. She also leaves to cherish her memory, her best-friend, Clarence Gabbell.

Her Journey's Just Begun

*Don't think of her as gone away
Her journey's just begun.
Life holds so many facets
This earth is only one.
Just think of her resting
From the sorrows and the tears
In a place of warmth and comfort
Where there are no days and years.
Think how she must be wishing
That we could know today
How nothing but our sadness
Can really pass away
And think of her as living
In the hearts of those she touched
For nothing loved is ever lost
And she was loved so much.*
