Reflections of Life

Dennis Michael Fredericks born on January 13, 1956 in Brooklyn New York at Crown Heights Hospital to George and Francina Fredericks.

He attended the Hershey School for Boys in Hershey, Pennsylvania before joining the United States Navy in 1973, where he served from 1973 to 1974, and was discharged under honorable conditions.

On Father's Day, June 15, 1980, he was blessed with a loving daughter, Chalette Dorsey. He enjoyed spending his spare time taking long walks through the town, riding his bike, and listening to music. He was employed by Data Center Technology for many years until he failed ill and then retired.

He was preceded in death by his father, George Fredericks in 1969; and his grandmother, Ernestine Durham.

He leaves to cherish precious memories, his daughter, Chalette Dorsey of Passaic New Jersey; his mother, Francina Fredericks of Passaic New Jersey; and a host of cousins, other relatives, friends and neighbors.

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day.
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.
If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much.
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!*
