Reflections of Life

Tywana Stephanie Ann Tindal was born on March 6, 1974 to Ruby Lee and Raymond Tindal in Bronx, NY. Tywana was the second child of Ruby and Raymond's first.

Tywana attended NYC Public Schools in the early grades and graduated from Saint Helena High School in the Bronx. Tywana attended Bronx Community College for a short period and later went on to study and earned her certificate as a Certified Nursing Assistant (CNA) where after graduating she worked at Kings Harbor Multicare Center in the Bronx.

Although Tywana would later be beset with various illness she always maintained a wonderful happy go lucky attitude while battling through her pains and sickness. Tywana was always ready to help the next person and lift their spirit. Tywana had a special place in her heart for children and always had time to spend with them and make them laugh.

Tywana was raised with the Lord in her heart from the time she was a little girl by accompanying her grandmother (Annie) to Caldwell A.M.E. Zion Church in the Bronx on a regular basis. Tywana later would attend a different church but continued her relationship with God.

Tywana is preceded in death by her mother (Ruby), grandparents (Charlie and Burt), aunt (Connie Thomas) and aunt (Vickie Tindal).

Tywana leaves to cherish her memory: her father (Raymond), grandmother (Annie), brother (Wendell Lee), aunt (Sandra), uncles (Lorenzo and Alonzo Thomas), cousins (KaRon, Sr. and Victoria), nephews (KaRon, Jr., Jalen, Lify, Blake, Cazdele, Wendell, Jr. and James), Jasmine Lopez (affectionately called "Aunt Jasmin") and a host of other cousins, nephews, friends, medical personnel and neighbors too many to name.

*God saw the road was getting rough,
The hill was hard to climb.
So he gently closed your loving eyes
And whispered, "Peace Be Thine."*

*The weary hours, the days of pain,
The sleepless nights are passed,
The ever patient worn-out frame
Has found sweet rest at last.*
