Obituary

Qamar Ramadan was born January 18, 1952 in Orange, NJ to the late John L. Morman and the late Jeanette Hill. Qamar received her formal education from the Newark Public School System and in 1970 Qamar proudly received her High School Diploma from Central High School in Newark, NJ.

Qamar was employed with Clara Maass Medical Center in Belleville, New Jersey for 26 years. She worked in Labor & Delivery, Intensive Care Unit and Emergency Room. She held positions as an ER Tech and Secretary until her retirement on January 31, 2014. She loved her career at Clara Maass Medical Center.

After spending many years in East Orange, New Jersey raising her children in April of 2014, she relocated to Florence, South Carolina where she united with New Ebenezer Baptist Church under the Leadership of Rev. Dr. Norman Gamble. She was very faithful to the ministry and involved in many church activities. She was a devoted mother and grandmother that loved spending time with her family. She was a very kind and compassionate person that never said much, but always was that listening ear for everyone. She loved to sew and watch movies. She will be deeply missed by her friends, family and all who knew her.

Qamar departed this life on Saturday, August 4, 2018. She was preceded in death by her beloved mother Jeanette Barnes, her father John Morman, her aunts Louise Anderson, Madaline Hill, her uncle Harry Hill and her grandson Taleel Bunion.

Qamar leaves to cherish her memory: her children, Two sons; Linwood Hill and Leo (Shickeela) Bunion III. Two daughters; Sadiqa M. Roe and Faten H. Smith. One Brother; Oliver Jackson and One Sister; Frances Gibbs. Three sister in law; Vevlyn and Edna Green, Nanette (William) Rivers. Eight grandchildren; One great grandchild; and a host of nieces, nephews and other relatives and lifelong friends.

Change of Address

Dear Family and Friends,

I want you to know that I have moved. I received a call from God, the Chief Architect, who informed me that my new house is ready and I could move immediately. Well, my new home is finished and its such a beautiful sight to behold. It is located in an exclusive estate area and it sits behind a beautiful pearly gate.

There is peace, joy and happiness here with no more pain to bear, no strife or discontent. I could go on exploring around my new home but I have to get fitted for my wings. Let me give you my new address because I highly recommend you make plans to live here too.

12 Gates to the City Avenue

Godstown, Heaven 77777.

Oh yeah! Let me tell you this , I don't have a telephone yet, but first call God. If you don't have His number, He is listed in the Good Book on every page. Contact Him.

Acknowledgement

The family of Qamar Ramadan expresses their deepest gratitude and thanks for the many expressions of kindness, love, and support extended to them during their time of bereavement. Special thanks to Union Chapel Church and Cotton Funeral Service for their special care and attention to our loved one.

Our hearts are forever grateful!
