Obituary

In Remembrance of Marlon James Anthony Smith

On February 21, 1993, a beautiful baby boy, Marlon James Anthony Smith was born to the proud parents of Marlon Victor Smith and Danette Daniels.

Little Marlon, lovingly known by his family, left New Jersey at four year old to become a California kid where he relocated to Carlsbad with his father, Big Marlon and grandfather, John Dexter Garland.

At the beginning of Little Marlon's school days at La Costa Heights Elementary and later at La Costa Canyon High School, he was active in Pop Warner Basketball, Pop Warner Football and High School Football. He excelled in these sports and his father and grandfather were his biggest cheerleaders. He also developed many loving friendships during his school days and they continued into his young adult life.

Little Marlon's career dream was to become a Personal Trainer. He was working toward that goal by learning all about the body, diet and nutrition while taking classes at Palomar Community College.

He was a handsome, fun loving, young man coming into his own who will be missed by all.

Marlon leaves to cherish his memory: his father, Marlon V. Smith; his brother, James Powell; grandmother, Cynthia Smith; aunts, Jane Culver, Christine Wallace (Lawrence) Estelita Smith, Barbara Smith, Judy Smith; uncles, Anthony Williams and James Williams; special loving friend, Tammie Watters and a host of cousins and friends.

He is preceded in death by his mother, Danette Daniels, his brother, Shariff Ali Shabazz Daniels and his grandfather, John Dexter Garland.

Little Marlon would never forgive us if we forgot his best friend in the whole wide world, his dog, Chaos.

Cousin To Cousin

We're from the same shoot,
The same family tree.
Into this world we sprouted
Call it destiny!

It's Cousin to Cousin – a special
Thing- closeness to which we 're tied
And you've always been there to laugh
With me even when I've cried.
Anyway I think it's fantastic that you
Were meant to be –
A part of my life, my Cousin
You'll always be special to me!
