Obituary

On July 20th, 1980, a long-awaited daughter was born to Margaret Williams and Fred Generette. They named their angel Myeshia. Margaret and Fred took their blossoming girl and established the newly constructed Williams House their home in 1980 in the flourishing city of Newark. Coming of age for the youngest child and only daughter would challenge the entire foundation of the house. As a little girl, the smart and witty Myeshia refused to take “no” for an answer. During her childhood Myeshia loved to read and always excelled in her academic studies. Affectionately known as the “Wiz-Kid”, she was skipped twice during her educational journey which led her to graduate from Weequahic High School at the early age of sixteen.

After graduating from high school, Myeshia had the first of her three children, Cierra. A proud mother, Myeshia was determined to complete her educational studies. She enrolled in Catherine Gibbs Business School where she majored in Business Administration. In 2001, she was blessed with her second child, Nakiya. Motherhood could not be better now that she had the pleasure of having yet another girl. Myeshia took a small break from her passion for academia to focus on raising her family. It was her desire to conclude her family unit with a son that would soon come in 2005 when she was blessed with Ke’Shon. Myeshia was known as the community “Fun Mom” which came with more children spending time with her and her new found love of parenting.

Family game nights and Sunday dinners had become one of Myeshia’s primary focuses. She would pour her love and affection into preparing special dishes which included baked ziti, spaghetti and other delicious pastas. Her living room was always filled with love and laughter from family and friends. Bringing family and friends together was a particular passion for Myeshia and she loved to openly share her home and heart. An extremely smart and savvy-shopper, Myeshia loved to save a coin! She received her Master’s Degree in Couponing from the Amelia & Margaret Williams University of Hard Knocks where she graduated magna cum laude. As a proud graduate, she used her education to feed and care for all of those she loved the most which mostly included her FAMILY.

Myeshia was very witty and found joy in making people laugh no matter what the circumstances were. You’d never walk away from her without knowing exactly how she felt about you. Whether it put a smile on your face or not. A loving friend, but no one confused Myeshia’s warm heart for weakness. If she loved you, you would know. And if she was not fond of you, you would also know. There was nothing artificial within her. She was the least concerned if her truth made you uncomfortable. Absolute honesty was her way. Although Myeshia dedicated her life to rearing her children, she never gave up on her first love “education”. She continued her educational journey to complete a Bachelor’s Degree in Accounting from Ashford University with plans to graduate on October 14, 2018. “Delayed But Destined”!

Myeshia entered into eternal rest on September 5th, 2018. She will be deeply missed by her mother, Margaret Williams-Scott; father, Fred Generette; daughters, Cierra Watts and Nakiya Williams; son, Ke’Shon Newsome; brothers, Antwaine Williams, Rasheed Williams, Darnell Generette, Jason Lopez; Sisters, Tyneesha Stokes, Lakia Barcus; honorary sister/aunt, Natasha Williams; love of her life, Terek Daniels; and a host of nieces, nephews, aunts, grandparents, uncles, cousins and friends.

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free I'm following the path God laid for me
 I took his hand when I heard Him call I turned my back and left it all.
 I could not stay another day. To laugh, to love, to work or play.
 Tasks left undone must stay that way, I found that peace at the close of day.
 If my parting has left a void, Then fill it up with remembered joy.
 A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss, Oh, yes these things I too will miss.
 Be not burdened with times of sorrow, I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
 My life's been full, I savored much. Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
 Perhaps my time seemed all too brief, Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
 Lift up your heart and share with me, God wanted me now, He set me free!*
