Obituary

Walita Williams, age 57, of Bronx, New York passed away on November 10, 2018 peacefully in her sleep.

Walita was born in Harlem Hospital in New York City on March 2, 1961. Walita graduated from Norman Thomas High School in New York City; and continued her studies in the legal field. She married Kevin S. Williams on April 21, 1984. Together they have one daughter, Shanatria whom she loved unconditionally. Walita worked as a "Legal Eagle" in the justice system. She loved the law and worked diligently for her firm and her clients; and assisted many family and friends with their legal matters.

Walita was called by God to serve Jesus Christ two year ago. She was baptized in the name of the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit. In the time she was given to serve Christ, she gave the most powerful testimonies to all who would hear her. She said the one thing she regretted on her spiritual journey, was that she did not labor more earnestly in her lifetime for the Kingdom of God.

Walita is preceded in death by her father, and her sister, Sandra Kay Craft.

Walita is survived by: her husband of 34 years, Kevin S. Williams; her daughter, Shanatria T. Williams, 32; grandson, Xavier A. Lyons, 8; and Andy Lyons; her mother, Ann Yelverton; three siblings, Rev. Jessica L. Matthews, Elsie B. Yelverton and Melvin T. Yelverton; three sisters-in-law, Carol, Denise, and Ruby; four brothers-in-law, Lenny, Levy, Derrick, and Johnny; and a host of nieces, nephews, relatives and friends.

Walita will be remembered as a determined "Go Getter" because she always loved a challenged.

Walita will be missed by many who loved her.

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day.*

*To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.*

*If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.*

*Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much.
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!*
