Obituary

James Harvey Jr. was born to Dorothy Eugenia Harvey and James Wilbur Harvey on September 26, 1940 in Bluefield, West Virginia. James also known passionately to many as Junior, June Bug, Uncle June June and Ol Harv. James is the third of five children, his 3 sisters: Dorothy who passionately calls him Ol Harv, Mona, Linda and deceased brother Leroy.

James received his formal education in Kimball, West Virginia. After earning his high school diploma he moved to New York City, and ultimately settled in New Jersey. James worked for Pfizer Chemical for 30 years as a Chemical Technician and after retirement became the Superintendent of 101 21st St. in Irvington, NJ. At 21st Street, as the Superintendent James truly embraced his passion for repairing or fixing things. James didn't care if it was a loose door knob or replacing an engine in a car, if it looked like it needed fixing he was going to fix it. On one occasion while he was a patient in the hospital, one of his closest friends came in only to catch James fixing the radiator in his hospital room.

James loved the finer things in life like being surrounded by his loving family, laughing and talking with friends while sitting and sipping on a cup of coffee at Dunkin' Donuts. He enjoyed making others feel good about themselves and loved his family and friends relentlessly.

We could go on and on about the goodness in the heart of this man but if you truly knew James then you know this is not fake news. James was preceded in death by his brother, Leroy Harvey. He is survived by 3 sisters, Dorothy Ann Long, Mona (James) Freeman, Lynn (James (Deceased) Flanigan. He also leaves to cherish his legacy, four nieces, Stephanie (Chris) Mushington, Sabrina (Ricky Muhammad) Harvey, Kym (Jay) Mayo, Brandi (Quentin) Jordan and one nephew Alphonso Richardson as well as a host of other relatives and wonderful friends.

On behalf of the Harvey family and in the words of our dearly loved and missed Brother, Uncle and friend James/Junior/June Bug/Ol Harv " Love you all, My Good People".

Afterglow

*I'd like the memory of me
To be a happy one,
I'd like to leave an afterglow
Of smiles when day is done.
I'd like to leave an echo
Whispering softly down the ways,
Of happy times and laughing times
And bright and sunny days.
I'd like the tears of those who grieve
To dry before the sun
Of happy memories that I leave behind,
When the day is done.*
