Obituary

Alfred Emmanuel Williams, 91, went home to be with the Lord on November 22, 2018 at 1:15 p.m. at Newark Beth Israel Hospital in Newark, New Jersey.

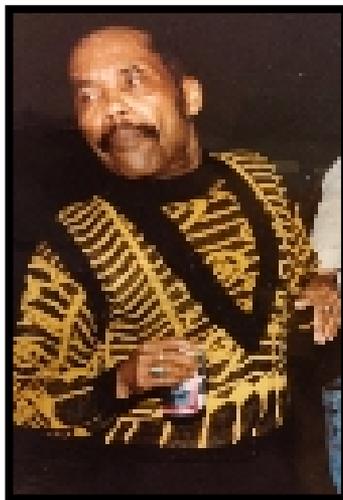

He was born in St. Elizabeth Jamaica to Henry and Effie Williams. As a young man he began working as a chef on cruise ships and was afforded the opportunity to travel around the world, after settling in the United States he continued his career in culinary arts and worked at Garden State Healthcare Center in the dietary department for many years.

Alfred always kept busy; he enjoyed working in his garden, working on his car, loving his pets, dancing and watching western movies. In his later years he enjoyed watching SBN/Christian Television.

He was a dedicated husband to his loving wife Madgerine Williams (Boogie), married December 31, 1986.

Alfred wore his cap everywhere he went especially to bed; if he could have worn his cap in the shower, he would.

He is survived by his wife, Madgerine; sons, Albert and Michael; daughters, Beverly, Jean, Juanita and Andrea; step-sons, Renford, Denzil and Marland; step-daughters, Sharon, Dahlia, Annette and Diane; five grandchildren, Machale, (Deceased) Damion, Williard, Dai'Quan and Beyanka and a host of step-grandchildren and three great-grands, Damoni, Kelsie and Malachi.

Miss Me, But Let Me Go

*When I come to the end of the road and the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free?*

*Miss me a little-but not too long,
and not with your head bowed low.*

*Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me-but let me go.*

*For this is a journey that we all must take,
And each must go alone.*

*It's all part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road to home.*

*When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know.*

*Laugh at the things we use to do
Miss me-but let me go.*

Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.

Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.

Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever the part.
