Reflections of Life

Delores McBride-Smith, better known as "Lois", was born on January 6, 1934. She was the daughter of the late Margie and Hosea McBride.

Lois was educated in the Newark Public School system and also attended St. Johns Methodist Church when it was located on Thirteenth Ave and High Street, Newark, NJ.

After attending school, Lois met and married the late Fortune Smith. To this union was born three children: Jerome Smith (deceased), Yuvonne Smith, and Pamela Smith.

Delores worked various jobs through the years. Her last place of employment was at the Springfield Avenue Medical Center, where she was employed for over forty years as a Medical Assistant and X-ray Technician. Her life touched so many lives and she was loved by many.

Delores was outgoing and loved to travel with the Newark Knights Motorcycle Club with her daughter Yuvonne. They loved her so much they nominated and elected her as an Ambassador of the Newark Knights.

She was predeceased by her sisters, Dorothy Kimberly (Johnny) and Ruth White (Alphonso), brothers Kenneth McBride, Lenoard (Carol) McBride, and Melvin (Sandra) McBride. She was also predeceased by her grandson, Omar and granddaughter Ameerah.

Delores leaves to cherish wonderful memories her beloved daughters, Yuvonne and Pamela Smith, son-in-law, Arthur Singleton, a beloved sister, Geraldine Wilson and (sister/cousin) Marion Jackson, sister-in-law Joannie Reed. Three grandchildren, Saad, Alexis, and Jerome, twelve great-grandchildren and a host of other relatives and friends.

Psalm 23

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.
