Obituary

Lucille Chisolm was born on May 4, 1951 in Harlem, New York, where she remained until her passing on January 5, 2019. She was the eldest child born to Alvin and Luevenia Warren, who preceded her in death. Lucille graduated from Cathedral High School in 1969. Shortly thereafter, she met and married John Chisolm, Sr. (divorced). They were blessed with three children, John Jr., Christina, and Rachel.

In 1986, Lucille began working for the New York City Housing Authority (NYCHA). While there, she held various positions before her retirement in 2010. While working for NYCHA, she met a number of individuals who started out as co-workers but later became lifelong friends.

Lucille's children and grandchildren were the highlight of her life. Her family loved her dearly. She was adored by everyone she encountered. Lucille will be sadly missed, and her memory will live on in the hearts of her friends and loved ones.

Lucille is survived by: her children, John Chisolm, Jr. (Dionne), Christina Williams (Charles), and Rachel Chisolm; grandchildren, Justin Diggs-Chisolm, Trevon Chisolm, Dejah Williams, Gabrielle Chisolm, Arianah Williams, Shanaya Williams, and Tiffany Seaward; sister, Mary Ellen Warren; brothers, Eddie Martin and Wayne Coakley; nephews, Wayne Coakley, Jr. and Matthew Martin; nieces, Tamara Grimes and Natasha Grimes; along with a host of other family members and close friends.

The Master Called

*I'm sorry I had to leave you.
My loved ones, oh so dear.
But you see, the Master called me,
His voice was very clear!
I had made my reservation
A heaven bound ticket for one,
And I knew that He would call me
When He felt my work was done.
I know that your hearts are heavy
Because I have gone away,
But when the Master called me,
I knew that I could not stay.
Yes, I'm sorry I had to leave you
My loved ones, oh so dear,
But, you see, the Master called me
And, now I'm resting here.
Yes, I've crossed on over to glory
And to you all I say
Just stay in the hands of Jesus
And we'll meet again someday.*

Acknowledgement

*The family acknowledges with deep appreciation all acts of kindness extended to them during this bereavement hour.
May God bless you for all your thoughtfulness and concern.*
