Obituary

Carrie Roberts was born on July 12, 1952 in Brooklyn, New York to the late Charlie and Lureatha “Lucy” Harris. She graduated from Fashion Industries High School in New York in 1970. She returned to school and graduated with a Bachelor’s degree from the City College of New York in 1985. Later, Carrie received her Chaplain Certificate with the State of New York in 2018.

Carrie served in numerous civil service positions. She served as the first female supply chief for the U.S. Department of Transportation for 15 years, later transitioning into an administrative assistant at Brooklyn College for the School of Education and the School of Visual, Media, and Performing Arts for over 24 years. She was dedicated to empowering students in the arts. With her caring and compassionate ways, there was no surprise she would follow her calling to be an advocate of service to others.

Carrie was dedicated, dynamic, and committed to lifelong learning, the love of God and the pursuit to love others. She demonstrated this in every life she touched and in moments she shared with others.

Carrie was highly decorated and received over 200 awards and merits over the course of her life. In recent years, Carrie was an active member of the New Brooklyn Restoration Lions Club, where she participated in various community service projects and served as assistant to the secretary. She enjoyed traveling with her family and friends, dining out, going to performances, and numerous hobbies such as sewing and crocheting.

She leaves her precious memories and legacy to her spouse, Earl Romain; her six children: Deron, Alfred, Lareatha (deceased), Jovon, Joel, and Jayvette; thirteen grandchildren and three great-grandchildren; her cousin Marleana; four nieces and two nephews: Rose, Sharon, Joyce, Denise, Albert, Jimmy; with a host of great-nieces, great-nephews, cousins, godchildren, friends and extended family members.

Afterglow

*I'd like the memory of me
To be a happy one,
I'd like to leave an afterglow
Of smiles when day is done.
I'd like to leave an echo
Whispering softly down the ways,
Of happy times and laughing times
And bright and sunny days.
I'd like the tears of those who grieve
To dry before the sun
Of happy memories that I leave behind,
When the day is done.*

Acknowledgement

God bless you all for thoughtfulness and concern.*
