In 1961 God Blessed Mary with her first child Edbredge Jerome Dudley. In 1968, she met her soul mate Marrinello Hamilton Jr., and they were united in Holy Matrimony. To this union, God blessed them with 2 biological sons, Rodney and Derrick and later Kennetta, James, Lamont, Lance and Shakia joined the family.

Mary was a firm believer in Jesus Christ and a respected member of the Sweet Rest Baptist Church where she worked faithfully for more than 40 years. She acted as the Food Pantry Coordinator serving hot meals every Saturday and providing food for families who needed it. Mary also volunteered at church fundraiser's, served on the Missionary Board, and acted as President of the Sweet Rest Baptist Church Choir for more than 30 years.

Mary had a generous spirit, always helping others in her community as well as opening her home to anyone in need. She was also a foster parent for over 35 years. She touched many lives, family and friends alike and was loved by all who knew her. As a result of her generous spirit and pleasant personality, she will be truly missed.
