Obituary

Roxanne Sheron Connor was the first of two children born to the Late Garfield Raymond Connor, Sr. And Linda Irene Connor (née Gladman) on March 3, 1963. She joined her Heavenly Father on January 11, 2019, slipping quietly and peacefully away at Amicasa Hospice in Decatur, Georgia.

Roxy, as she was affectionately called, was a vibrant, kind, loving and devoted Daughter, Granddaughter, Sister, Niece and faithful Loving Friend.

Roxanne attended elementary and secondary schools in the Bronx, NY. She graduated from Norman Thomas H.S. in New York City. She spent most of her professional career in the banking industry. She went on to a career in bookkeeping at Tire Supply in the Bronx in the early 2000's where she was much loved and respected by her superiors and coworkers. She continued working there for many years until deciding to relocating to Georgia.

Upon relocating to Georgia, she began working at Emory University Hospital in Decatur, GA for 12 years in the Accounting Department until her illness in 2017. She was always striving for perfection and achieved high regard from her managers and coworkers. Roxanne missed her job and coworkers terribly and longed to return to work but her doctors were unable to clear her return to work because her illness was more debilitating than they thought.

Roxanne is loved by ALL who have had the blessing and privilege to know her. To her family and friends, her love, generosity, genuine concern and unshakeable devotion was, WELL just Roxanne. She also enjoyed her walk with God which she learned at an early age. Her faith and trust in her Savior helped her to endure the trials and tribulations of life's ups and downs.

She was a Diva who enjoyed time and conversations with close friends with whom she loved to travel with. One of the highlights of her life was getting the opportunity to see one of her favorite musical artist, Bruno Mars, together with her sister, Teelee. Roxy really enjoyed life wherever it took her. Her honesty, liveliness and loving nature will be truly missed by all.

Roxanne leaves to Treasure Precious Memories: Two Brothers; Garfield Raymond Connor, Jr. (affectionately known as "Ray Ray") of Pocono Lake, PA and Theodor Evans Jr. (Sade) of Pittston PA; two Sisters: Devoted and caring WAY BEYOND MEASURE Teelee aka Marian (Jerry) Johnson-Frasier of Rahway, NJ and Arrian Thompson of San Antonio, TX; Grandfather, Bennie Gladman of Mount Vernon, NY; four Aunts: Diana Morris-Walker and Doreen Morris both of Yonkers, NY, Barbara Evans of Bronx, NY and Cynthia Gladman of Mount Vernon, NY; three Uncles: Jimmie Walker of Yonkers, NY, David Gladman (Venita) and Steven Gladman both of Mt. Vernon, NY; three nieces: Brittany Rae of Springfield, MA, Tiffani and Tia of Loganville, Ga.; two nephews: Aiden and Kaleb of San Antonio, TX; a "Very Special Friend" Nathaniel Bartley, Sr., her "SPECIAL BFF, RIDE OR DIE" Shelley Greene, and A Devoted Godmother; Alfreda Hopkins. Roxanne acquired a few Honorary "Moms" that really considered her their daughter,- they are Sonia, Jackie and Beatrice, and she loved them dearly. She is also survived by many grand nieces, grand nephews and many, many cousins, relatives and friends. She made EVERYONE feel special. Our prayer is that she knew how SPECIAL she was to US.

Miss Me But Let Me Go

*When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room
why cry for a soul set free?*

*Miss me a little, but not too long and not with your head bowed low
Remember the love that we once shared.
Miss me but let me go.*

*For this is a journey we all must take,
And each must go alone
It's all a part of the Master's Plan
A step on the road to home.*

*When you are lonely and sick at heart
Go to the relatives and friends we know.
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds.
Miss me, but let me go.*
