Obituary

Lydia Marie Easton was born on August 27, 1953 at the "First Aid" Station at the foot of Sand Lane on the beach of Staten Island to Dorothy Faith Clark and George Easton. She was raised in Brooklyn, New York and attended Roosevelt High School in the Bronx, New York.

In 1977, she was employed by the state of New York at The Workers Compensation Board. Lydia retired in 2010 giving her 33 years of service.

Lydia leaves behind: her children, Michele and Jason; grandchildren, Shaun, Christian, Travis and Grayson; her siblings, Jacqueline, Tereasa, Ruby, Edmund and Leander; and a host of other family and friends.

When I Must Leave You

*When I must leave you for a little while
Please do not grieve and shed wild tears
And hug your sorrow to you through the years
But start out bravely with a gallant smile
And for my sake and in my name
Live on and do all things the same
Feed not your loneliness on empty days
But fill each waking hour in useful ways
Reach out your hand in comfort and in cheer
And I in turn will comfort you
And hold you near
And never, never be afraid to die
For I am waiting for you in the sky!*

-Helen Steiner Rice

Psalm 23

The Lord is My Shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the path of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies. Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.
