Obituary

James L. Lewis also known as Salaam was born January 31, 1964 in Summit, NJ. He was the son of Doris P. Lewis and Bishop Jesse G. Lewis.

James was educated at Hawthorne Ave School in Newark, NJ where he attended the Boys Club. That is when he fell in love boxing in which he was really good. He won many awards and trophies.

James was also a barber and a cook. He was known for cutting all styles of hair. There wasn't a style that he could not cut.

James was a very outgoing person, and made friends wherever he went. He was loved not just by his family, but the many good friends that he had made throughout his life.

James was preceded in death by: his father Jesse G. Lewis, brother Daniel Lewis, sister Debra Lewis, grandmothers, Lena Rodgers, Annie Stewart and Cora Lee Anderson, three uncles, Willie Anderson, William Stewart and James Stewart: and on Aunt Elizabeth Jackson.

James leaves to Cherish his memory: A daughter Aquilia Elmo, a son Darnell Roberts and their children, his mother Doris P. Lewis, five brothers David Lewis, Michael Lewis, Phillip Lewis of Newark NJ, Jesse Lewis Jr. and Ronnie Lewis of NYC, Aunts Leana Pretty and BIRTHA Morgan of North Carolina, His Best Friend that he loved like a brother Karriem Shakur. He also leaves a host of nieces, nephews and cousins.

James will be greatly missed by all!
