Obituary

On Thursday morning, January 24th, 2019, Luther Brown Richardson made his earthly transition of life. He was born in Hollister, NC on May 21st, 1945 to the late Eloise Richardson Harris and Luther Richardson, Sr.

Luther attended Norfolk public schools until moving to Harlem, NY then residing in Brooklyn which he called home for 50 plus years. He was a hard working individual that was employed at One World Trade Center as a maintenance personal and then a truck driver for David Rosen Bakery. Due to a back inquiry and a decline in health, he was forced to retire and bask in his favorite past times he enjoyed the most – driving (“ride sally ride!”), lounging and eating. He looked forward to celebrating the holidays in Virginia and over the past 10 years cherished his time with his grandchild Asia whom affectionately called him “boo father” or “boo boo”.

Luther is predeceased by; his parents, Eloise Richardson Harris and Luther Richardson Sr; nephew, Jerome Richardson; and baby brother, Rudy Richardson whom he loved dearly.

He is survived by; his “two girls” (as he would say) daughter, Kimberly Crystal Richardson and his heart, grand daughter, Asia Monay Bruce. He resided with them for the past 8 years in Yonkers, NY. Sisters; Mary Frances Jones of Chesapeake and Barbara Freeman (Betty) of Norfolk; brother, Clinton Richardson (Sandra); one aunt, Lois Williams of North Carolina; and a host of nephews, grand nieces and other relatives and friends.
