Obituary

Jennings Tunde Osaigbovo, the son of Samuel Osaigbovo Ekenezar from the extended family of “Latose – The Edohen and Isiemwenro families” was born on January 17, 1955 at Urhonigbe, Orhionmwon LGA, Edo State, Nigeria. He passed away peacefully on January 9, 2019 at the University Teaching Hospital, Newark, NJ after a brief illness.

Tunde led an uncomplicated and peaceful life with all whom he came in contact with. He was kind and generous even in the face of adversity. He was a complete brother and father who lived an exemplary life.

There was never a time when you would call upon him for a favor or simple conversation and he refused you. He was always available to talk, no matter the time or day. His generosity was as pure as his heart, giving freely and without resentment was what many experienced when they went to him for help.

As a father and brother, they do not come in a better package. Even though there is nothing like human perfection but he was near perfection in every way. As a father and brother, you could not ask for a better one; he was truly amongst the best. A thousand years would not be enough to spend with him. Thanks to the lord for the years he spent here on earth. He was a loving, kind and dependable father and brother who had very special relationships with his family.

Of all the fathers and brothers that have come and gone, Tunde will be one of the few who will join the high ranks with great ancestors. He will now be our silent guide, gently reminding us that true greatness comes from genuine love of people. It was always evident that Tunde genuinely cared for the welfare of others; a trait only pure heart can exude.

Please join us to pray that the ancestors embrace him, call him brother and usher him to their side as one of their own. Let him be called ancestors, our brother as he guides our steps into the future of our family that was completed by his presence. And may his spirit continue to be at peace, as it was in life. Thank you friends and well-wishers for coming.

Weep Not For Me

Weep not for me though I have gone
Into that gentle night
Grieve if you will, but not for long
Upon my soul's sweet flight
I am at peace, my soul is at rest
There is no need for tears
For with your love I was so blessed
For all those many years
There is no pain, I suffer not
The fear is now all gone
Put now these things out of your thoughts
In your memory I live on
Remember not my fight for breath
Remember not the strife
Please do not dwell upon my death
But celebrate my life
