Obituary

George Moore, Jr. was born on December 11, 1948 in Hardeesville, South Carolina to the late George Moore and Jannie Ford Moore. He spent his early childhood in Hardeesville and eventually relocated to Jersey City, New Jersey. He attended Ferris High School in Jersey City, New Jersey.

After high school, George worked for Robart Wood & Wire Company for 5 years, and Port Jersey Distribution Center in Jersey City for 24 years. He retired from Forever Cheese in Secaucus, New Jersey after 15 years of service. George also worked for the City of Linden as a School Crossing Guard for 2 years.

In 1970, George married the love of his life Irene Posey and became partners in life for 48 years. They had two children, Tyrell and Kimberly. He was a loving father and a doting dedicated grandfather. George loved his family dearly and always showed it. His grandson Ayden calls him a LEGEND. He had a very friendly personality and would talk to anybody about anything.

George had a special talent. He was a professional drummer for 15 years with several bands and groups. He was a die-hard New York Giants' Fan. George also loved race cars and built one known as "THINK TWICE."

On Friday, February 1, 2019, George Moore, Jr. departed from this life at Beth Israel Hospital in Newark.

George leaves to cherish his memories his wife, Irene; son, Tyrell; daughter, Kimberly and daughter in-law, Tiffany; two brothers: Ronald Moore and Anthony Moore; two sisters: Verline Johnson and DebraAnn Dew; 7 grandchildren: Zyshonne Small, Tylayja Moore, Zaniya Small, Elijah Harrison, Giana Anglin, Tyrell Moore, Jr. and Ayden Moore; and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Humbly submitted,
The Family
