Obituary

Robert Duzon was born on June 13, 1953 to Ceferino and Mary Duzon. He was a healthy child who thrived under the loving care of his parents. His nickname was "Bobby".

Unfortunately, Bobby was diagnosed as being mentally challenged and his parents had the difficult task of placing him in a living facility to address his special needs.

Throughout the years, Bobby was visited constantly by his family. Bobby loved life. When his mother Mary passed away on August 13, 1980, and his father Ceferino passed on July 2, 2001, his sisters continued to provide a strong family support system for him. As Bobby entered into the twilight of his years, his health declined. He lost his battle with sepsis on January 29, 2019.

Bobby is survived by: two of his brothers, James and John; eight of his sisters, Elisabeth, Patricia, Anna, Mary, Bessie, Bernadette, Veronica and Loretta; and numerous nephews, nieces, grand nephews and grand nieces. Four siblings have predeceased him, Ceferino (Danny), Carl, Camilla Turner and Aneesah Muhammad.

Bobby has enriched the lives of all of his family members, and brought a ray of sunshine to everyone who loved him. All who knew Bobby are better because of him. We will miss him and will always have fond memories of him.

No Time For Sad Remembrances

*There's no time for sad remembrances
Because I'm home where I belong
I've conquered all my battles,
I've even heard the trumpet's song.
I've climbed my highest mountain
And I've reached an even peak,
And I've found that peace and true reward
That you have yet to seek.*

*There's no time for sad remembrances
For you have a precious life;
So find comfort in my journey
Please don't bear this pain and strife.
Oh! My Father's house is perfect
Just like He said it would be,
So dry your tears
Because I'm home and now I'm free.
I am part of all the beauty
That your world has yet to see;
So don't be sad about my journey,
Just be glad that I am free!*
