Obituary

Winnie Green Stanton was born to Mr. and Mrs. Sammie and Rosie Pearl Green on February 13, 1942, in Aliceville, Alabama. Winnie was the eldest of eight children.

Winnie relocated to New York City in 1960 and held various employment positions before she found her passion in being a dedicated HHA worker. She retired from the Progressive Homecare Agency.

There were so many things Winnie loved to do, such as spending time with her family, laughing with that infectious laugh and smile, and going in field service with her fellow Jehovah's Witness sisters and brothers. She loved sports, football, especially those Jets!, and cooking, where she was well known for her famous sweet potato pies.

Winnie was a loving mother and grandmother. She had a genuine love for people, she truly enjoyed wearing her big rim sun hats, and listening to her Blues music.

Winnie was baptized as one of Jehovah's Witnesses on December 15, 1995 and remained faithful until her death, after a long battle with Alzheimer's. Our mother had great strength and fought a good fight as she challenged this disease.

Winnie is survived by: her two children, Sharon and Clyde; two grandchildren, Cherri and Vanice; great grandson, Pharrell; sisters, Martha, Era Jean and Annie; brother, Sammie; and a host of cousins, nieces and nephews. Winnie was preceded in death by her sister, Mary, and brothers, Taylor and Willie.

Alzheimer's Poem

*Do not ask me to remember
Do not try to make me understand.
Let me rest and know you're with me.
Kiss my cheek and hold my hand.
I'm confused beyond your concept.
I am sad and sick and lost
All I know is that I need you to be with me at all cost.
Do not lose your patience with me.
Do not scold or curse my cry.
I can't help the way I'm acting,
Can't be different though I try.
Just remember that I need you,
That the best of me is gone.
Please don't fail to stand beside me,
Love me till my life is done.*

2 Corinthians 1:3-4

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies and the God of all consolation who consoles us in all our affliction, so that we may be able to console those who are in any affliction with the consolation with which we ourselves are consoled by God.
