Obituary

Alice Marie Winston-Vance was born October 18, 1935 in Creedmoor, North Carolina to the late Jerry and Luvenia Winston. She was the first born of four siblings.

Alice was joined in holy matrimony in 1955 to her only love, Henry Russell Vance Sr. and to this union three beautiful children were born. She was a devoted wife, sister, mother and grandmother.

Alice graduated from Morristown High School in 1954. She was an excellent student and one of the first African Americans to integrate the honors classes at Morristown High School. After high school she furthered her education by attending nursing school and graduating from a Computer School where she received high honors in Computer Programming and graduated at the top of her class.

As one who was ahead of her time, she remained computer savvy until her transition. She worked for various Temporary Agencies in Computer Programming and they were always willing to provide her with employment. She was affectionately called “Nana” by her grandchildren and taught them computer skills before they ever attended school.

Alice was baptized at Union Baptist Church in Morristown, NJ and was a member for over 45 years.

One of Alice’s favorite pastimes was listening to James Brown music and on Saturday summer mornings, she would open the windows and share the music with the neighbors while doing her housework.

Alice was preceded in death by her loving husband, Henry Russell Vance Sr., her parents, Luvenia and Jerry Winston, Sr. and sisters, Carolyn Ruth Winston and Mary Lou Winston Martinez.

Alice departed this life on January 29, 2019. Her memory will be cherished by her children, Luvenia E. Vance-Banks, Henry Russell Vance Jr. and Gerald Winston Vance; her brother Jerry Winston, Jr. (Sheila); 7 grandchildren and 10 great grandchildren; a host of nephews, nieces, cousins, and friends.
