Obituary

Ms. Quinetta Evans, daughter of the late Charles and Edna Evans, was born on April 20, 1954 in Newark, NJ. She was the youngest of 11 children.

Quinetta graduated from the Newark Public School System and went on to study public health at Rutgers University where she obtained a Bachelor Degree in 1979.

In April 1980, Quinetta started her career at the VA Hospital in East Orange, NJ. She began working at the VA Federal Credit Union in East Orange, NJ in March of 1990 until present.

Quinetta was preceded in death by her brothers, Joel, William, Harry, Donald, Alonzo, Arnold and Clifford; sister, Dolores Jennings and life partner, Ennis Harris, Jr.

Quinetta was a blessing to anyone who knew her. She had a wonderful, fiery and dynamic spirit. She provided an atmosphere that was full of love and warmth. She also was a bright spirit, that always made sure those around her were smiling and had a unique relationship with everyone she met.

Unfortunately, Quinetta didn't have the privilege of retiring and then going on to enjoy the rest of her life. Instead, she will go down in history as an honorable, hard working, team-oriented professional, who always had the big picture in mind. She worked hard and went above and beyond her duty to get the job done.

On the morning of February 3, 2019, Quinetta was called home while sleeping peacefully. She leaves a loving family to cherish her memory: her children, Shantell Evans and Ennis Harris III of Newark, NJ; her adoring grandsons, Kyree Harris of Newark, NJ and Jaden and Amir Harris of Florida; granddaughter, Shyonna Harris of Newark, NJ; brother, Charles Evans of Morristown, NJ; sister, Yvonne Harris of Gaithersburg, MD; and a host of nieces, nephews and many friends.

The Day God Took You Home

*In tears we saw you sinking,
And watched you pass away,
Our hearts were almost broken,
We wanted you to stay.*

*But when we saw you sleeping,
So peaceful free from pain,
How could we wish you back with us,
To suffer that again.*

*It broke our hearts to lose you,
But you did not go alone,
For part of us went with you,
The day God took you home.*

Acknowledgement

The family of Quinetta Evans wishes to express their sincere thanks and appreciation for all acts of kindness and expressions of sympathy that was shown to them during this time of bereavement.
